

SACP 2008 - 2009 Science Essay Contest Award Winners

High School Topic: If you were a policy advisor to the President of the United States, what recommendation would you make concerning alternative energy sources? Be sure to include scientific background regarding your suggestions and cite all resources used.

High School Students
Awarded	Student	School
First	Ryan Zahalka	Morgantown High School
Second	Eric Wise	South Fayette High School
Third	Tyler Houy	South Fayette High School
Honorable Mention	Bethany Bender	Salisbury-Elk Lick
Honorable Mention	Adam Crimboli	Hempfield Area High School
Honorable Mention	Brittiany Feher	Buckeye Local High School
Honorable Mention	Nolen Fetchko	Freeport Senior High School
Honorable Mention	Rachel Haras	Norwin Senior High School
Honorable Mention	Rachel James	Lewis County High
Honorable Mention	Vikram Mookerjee	Fox Chapel Area High School
Honorable Mention	Megan Schambura	Penn-Trafford High School
Honorable Mention	Lauren Speranza	Penn-Trafford High School
Honorable Mention	Becky Stabile	Gateway High School
Honorable Mention	Lisa Stabryla	Carrick High School

Middle School Topic: Many technologies affect our lives. Suppose today's technologies did not exist, how would our lives be different? Use some examples of how one specific technology has changed the way we live our lives.

Middle School Students
Awarded	Student	School
First	Tommy McCoy	Marshall Middle School
Second	Celine Colbert	Montour High School
Third	Joshua Samuel Bowman	Peters Township Middle School
Honorable Mention	Harley Bobnar	Finley Middle School
Honorable Mention	Leanne Fries	Finley Middle School
Honorable Mention	Aliya Hutman	Conneaut Lake High School
Honorable Mention	Heather Self	Franklin Regional Senior High School
Honorable Mention	Meghan Thomas	Conneaut Lake High School
Honorable Mention	Lily Zhang	Marshall Middle School